Welcome to St. Ambrose we are so happy that you could join us today to celebrate the Thirtieth Sunday in Ordinary Time.

After the Second World War, a Greek man named Alexander Papaderous founded an Institute of Peace and Understanding on the island of Crete, as a response to the atrocities that had taken place there during the war. One day, while taking questions at the end of a lecture, someone asked him ‘What is the meaning of life?’ In response, Papaderous took a small mirror out of his wallet, and said: ‘I am a fragment of a mirror whose whole design and shape I do not know. Nevertheless, with what I have I can reflect light into the dark places of this world—into the black places in the hearts of men and women—and change some things in some people. Perhaps others may see and do likewise. This is what I’m about. This is the meaning of my life.’

Papaderous was a person of great humility, aware of how small and seemingly insignificant each one of us is, but full of faith that we can still do great things. Like the tax collector in the parable we hear today, he was aware of his unworthiness, but open to light and hope.

In today’s Gospel we are invited to put ourselves in the shoes of the Pharisee, who regarded himself as superior to others, and the tax collector, who throws himself on the mercy of God. Which of them sees the bigger picture

Have a great week—and remember to count your blessings. May God bless you always,

PASTOR’S MUSING
A husband is advised by a psychiatrist to assert himself. “You don’t have to let your wife henpeck you. Go home and show her you’re the boss.” The husband takes the doctor’s advice. He rushes home, slams the door, shakes his fist in his wife’s face, and growls, “From now on, you’re taking orders from me. I want my supper right now, and when you get it on the table, go upstairs, and lay out my best clothes. Tonight, I’m going out with the boys, and you are going to stay at home where you belong. And another thing, guess who’s going to comb my hair, give me a shave and tie my necktie?” His wife says calmly, “The undertaker.”

ALL SAINTS DAY is set aside by the church to honor and recognize all of the saints of the Christian Church, many of which were martyrs.

Friday, November 1st, is All Saints Day— and mass will be celebrated at 7:30 am, 11 am, & 7 pm the vigil for the Holy Day will be held Thursday, October 31st at 4 pm only.

ALL SOULS DAY we remember our beloved dead. But our memory is no mere nostalgia; we pray for them and look forward to joining them. Christian faith and hope are most crucial in the face of death. They make death bearable. Joined to Jesus, in prayer and in the Eucharist, we are joined to those who are already with Jesus. If you wish to have your deceased loved ones remembered during our Novena, kindly take your envelope and place their names in the spaces provided (please legibly print).

Then place the envelope in the collection basket or drop it off at the Rectory before October 25th. The envelopes will be placed on the altar November 2nd thru November 10th for the Novena of All Souls. Saturday, November 2nd All Souls Day mass times are 7:30 & (4 pm Vigil for Sunday).

Come and See... EXPERIENCE unconditional love

On Thursday, October 2, at 7:00pm in the Parish Hall of Saint Ambrose Catholic Church, YOU CAN STILL JOIN!

We begin RCIA [Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults]

Our envisioned scheduled sessions

We usually meet Thursday evenings in St. Ambrose hall, upstairs from 7:00pm - 8:15pm. Life happens and schedule conflicts may occur. We will embrace challenges as occasions of grace.

As YOU engage in the process of developing and/or deepening your relationship with Jesus and the Catholic faith community, it is IMPERATIVE that you attend weekly Sunday liturgy, the MASS, the celebration of the Eucharist.

St. Ambrose  Saturday  4pm

St. Ambrose  Sunday  7:30, 9 & 10:30am, 12nn & 6pm
